About Us

XpressCoffee started as a local family run business specializing in self service 'Bean to Cup' Coffee machines with the idea of combining the technology of the internet with the highest level of support and backup.

Xpress Coffee laid its foundations by employing and developing our own in-house engineers rather than contracting out to a service company. As the company has grown so has the support, becoming the first coffee company in the UK to launch an iPhone app that uses the phone GPS to locate our nearest engineer – XpressEngineerFinder.

Whether you are looking for a small bean to cup machine for an office making 30 cups a day or a larger capacity machine delivering 600 cups per day, you can arrange a demonstration at XpressCoffee Headquarters in Milton Keynes. Here an expert engineer can be on hand to demonstrate the technical side of the machine.

Our trademark FuelledByXpressCoffee racing brand also looks after and sponsors a number of people in the Film industry and Racing world from British and World Superbikes to Stunt and Disabled Athletes,

Xpress Service

XpressCoffee are one of the few companies that have our own In-House Service Company, Xpress Service, which covers the UK and also ventures into Europe for its key account customers.

Tristan James can provide the complete coffee and vending solution. Our coffee and vending packages can offer contactless payment with full telematics, whether you are a retail store or an office, we have a package that will suit.

Our freshly roasted Arabica coffee beans, premium chocolate powder and freeze dried real milk are used for all our self-serve machines. In our opinion you cannot tell the difference between fresh milk and our granule milk. By using freeze dried milk you save a fortune in maintenance, PSSR boiler inspections and wastage.
